2012 GLC EVENTS & NEWS

Fly Fishing School • Roscommon, MI June 15 - 16, 2012

Seminars and hands-on workshops for all levels of fly fishing will be presented at the Ralph A. MacMullan Conference Center. Au Sable/Manistee rivers, fishing, federating, complete beginning fly fishing course, fly tying workshops, casting instruction, raffles, auctions, and programs on fly fishing in all waters bring GLC members and others together in Roscommon for a great weekend. Visit our web site at www.fffglc.org for details and registration materials, or contact Jim Schramm at jdschramm@oceana.net, or P. O. Box 828, Pentwater MI 49449-0828, or 231-869-5487.

Fly Tying Expo • Holt, MI • December 1, 2012

Join us at the eleventh annual fly tying expo sponsored by the Great Lakes Council, that will bring together many of the best FFF fly tyers in the country. This one-day event will feature more than 60 tiers highlighting different patterns and techniques, and vendors. Visit the Great Lakes Council web site for vendors' information, show times, and any possible last-minute change in location. Kids' tying, raffles and auctions add to the overall family experience.

The 47th Annual FFF, Fly Fishing Fair & Conclave July 10-14, 2012 • Spokane, Washington.

Workshops, programs, demonstrations, family activities and fishing opportunities around the area. Check the FFF web site: www.fedflyfishers.org for more details.

The Federation of Fly Fishers (FFF) and its Councils are the only organized advocates for fly fishers on the national and regional level. The FFF is an organization founded in Eugene, Oregon in 1965. It was formed to give fly fishing a unified voice, to promote fly fishing as a method of angling and to protect and expand fly fishing opportunities. The FFF is now international in scope with active membership throughout the world.
